

BALTIC MIGRATION AND SEGREGATION RESEARCH SEMINAR

October 29–31, 2024

SEMINAR VENUE

House of Nature
Faculty of Science and Technology
Jelgavas iela 1, Riga
Room 701

29
TUE

19:00 Social Event

30
WED

12:00–12:45 Lunch

Room 701, House of Nature

Rūta Ubarevicienē Socio-Spatial Inequalities in Lithuania and Beyond: An Overview of Recent Research Employing New Data Infrastructure

Jānis Zālīte Segregation or desegregation: digital transition and ethnic differences in residential patterns of tech workers

Māris Bērziņš Location and residential concentration of the 'creative class' in Riga, Latvia: insights from the Latvian census

15:00 Coffee Break

15:30 Sindija Balode, Māris Bērziņš K-nearest neighbor analysis of emerging ethnic groups in the inner city of Riga

Māris Fogelis Demography and economics in peripheral areas: challenges and opportunities. North East of Latvia

Gintare Pociūtė – Sereikienė Crisis-Induced Transformation in Lithuania's Medium-Sized Cities: Challenges and Opportunities for more equal spatial development

Workshop on projections in Riga

Dinner

Fazenda, Nometņu iela 7, Riga

31
THU

9:30 Coffee

Donatas Burneika Regional development in Lithuania: spatial inequalities during turbulent times

Zaiga Krišjāne, Māris Bērziņš, Elīna Apsīte-Beriņa, Niks Stafekis Urban shrinkage and left behindness: complex interplay of demographic and socio-economic dynamics

Kirils Gončarovs Who pays more? The assessment of socioeconomic, ethnic, and demographic characteristics of energy consumption in Tallinn, Estonia

Kadi Kalm, Māris Bērziņš, Donatas Burneika Discussion on further research activities

Wrap-up

12:30 Lunch